For years John was content to be "behind the scenes" working as a production and broadcast engineer in radio and TV. He also worked with live bands and mobile DJ's like Steve "Mr. Beach" Leonard. Now as a Choice DJ, John brings all of that experience along with his knowledge and love of music to parties and wedding receptions. He's an articulate, thoughtful, detail-oriented and fun entertainer, ready to do whatever it takes to make his clients happy. John is an excellent choice for a guaranteed great job every time!

What People Are Saying About John's Performance...

"John, we really appreciated your presence and participation at our wedding. You certainly went far beyond the call of duty to help us out. You truly played a vital role in putting together our wedding music. It never would have turned out so nicely if it weren't for you and your generosity, especially with your time. Thanks for helping us fulfill our musical vision!"
